MISSION

Once an Eagle, Always an Eagle: TVHS strives to show strength, participate in teamwork, be respectful, open-minded, and noble, while moving in a positive direction and achieving goals.

CULTURE

The teachers have a heart for youth. When asked what they teach, their answer is "students." The school focuses on building meaningful connections with everyone in the building.

RESOURCES

This high school provides AVID, dual-credit, integration services, social and emotional specialist, counselors, grants, and community partnerships.

DEMOGRAPHICS

Since the majority of the local community is white, the school population reflects that. They have a total of 116 IEP students who teachers work with.

SCHOOL COMMUNITY

AP AND AG

TVHS proudly offers true pre-AP and AP capstone for their students who can earn college credit and prepare for rigor.

Sports, art, and music are a few other involvement components that students can use to fulfill their interests and goals.

Opportunities for automotive, construction, agriculture, and more nontraditional classes are all available.

CLASSROOM COMMUNITY

Physical Environment

Mrs. Osier's classroom is filled with posters about literary figures and has extra amenities like a book shelf, snacks, microwave, and materials.

Learning Environment

The class sizes are smaller so students build connections with each other. She has 4 IEP students total.

Technology

Students aren't given laptops so they sometimes use their phones to complete their tasks. Mrs. O presents the news in her Journalism class.

Thompson Valley High School free-and-reduced lunch studentst make up 38% of the school population.
